

Physical Education Teacher

Charles Armstrong School unlocks the unique potential of students with dyslexia and related learning differences, changing the trajectory of their lives.

Position Description:

The Physical Education Curriculum is designed to integrate physical skill, self-awareness, and sportsmanship. The ideal candidate will possess a solid understanding of children's academic, social, and emotional development and familiarity with the Physical Education Framework in California.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Teach developmentally appropriate classes in a safe and nurturing environment
- Teach cooperative games and skills for traditional sports
- Provide meaningful feedback to students about their skill development
- Ability to follow and create lesson plans
- Assess student progress, maintaining specific and accurate records
- Prepare for and clean up after class activities and in shared teaching spaces
- Provide a welcoming and inclusive environment for students -- preferred Responsive Classroom methods for students
- Care and store all equipment
- Coordinate with classroom teachers regarding individual students
- Set behavioral expectations and hold students accountable
- Communicate with colleagues, administrators, and parents regarding students
- Consistently work to update curriculum with best practices
- Communicate with department members regarding shared classes
- Organize games and challenges that promote physical activity
- Develop motor skills and physical and mental development
- Maintain solid frequent and effective communication with home, colleagues and administration
- Coach boys and girls afterschool sports teams as time, qualifications, needs, and interests require and permit

Education, Certifications, and Work Related Experience:

Required

- Bachelor of Arts degree
- Teaching Credential
- Prior teaching experience preferred
- First AID training
- Willingness to work in a collaborative, team – teaching environment

- Kind and compassionate, encouraging and supportive attitude
- Prior knowledge of dyslexic and language based learning differences, ADHD and anxiety
- A growth mindset, active sense of humor, warm personality, strong classroom management, communication and organizational skills

Additional Skills:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to work on a team
- Accepts responsibility and is self-motivated
- Demonstrates strong work ethic to achieve academic goals
- Displays effective multi-tasking and time management skills
- Ability to communicate with students, teachers and co-teachers
- Ability to form parent partnerships
- Strong organizational skills
- Willingness to work in a collaborative professional learning environment
- Flexible and positive attitude
- Ability to motivate and engage thriving learners
- Ability to identify and improve student outcomes
- Understanding students according to strengths and challenges
- Experience with technology integration in the classroom

Charles Armstrong School offers:

- Competitive salaries commensurate with experience
- Attractive medical, dental and vision package, 403b plan
- Tuition reimbursement
- Team-teaching model
- Instructional coaches
- Professional development program
- Collaborative teaching environment with seasoned professionals

Direct resumes to Jessica R Miller, Head of School

jmiller@charlesarmstrong.org

(650) 592-7570

Charles Armstrong School

1405 Solana Drive, Belmont, CA 94002

www.charlesarmstrong.org

Charles Armstrong School is the premier school for children with dyslexia and learning differences in the San Francisco Bay Area with a national reputation for excellence. Charles Armstrong School is a non-profit, independent, coeducational day school of approximately 240 students in grades 2-8. Charles Armstrong School is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

